HIGH SCHOOL ALL-STAR GAME SATURDAY

Saturday, March 20th at 8:00 P.M., Loyola College will host its 6th Annual High School All-Star Hockey game.

The game will be played at the Loyola Athletic Complex and admission will be free.

The game will feature the stars from the Montreal "A" section and Greater Montreal "B" section.

In the past, the High School All-Stars have always provided fans with a high calibre brand of play and in the last several seasons, close one goal games have occurred.

Today, Thursday, the All-Stars will hold their final practice from 4:30 P.M. to 6:00 P.M. in preparation for the big game Saturday.

After the All-Star encounter, players and their parents will be invited to a special reception along with GMIAA coaches.

Players competing in the "A" section are: Joe Twardowski, Jim Blotsky, Gerry Paquin, Gary Rinaldi and Louis Clement, all from James Lyng, Bruce Lyness, Robie Bellows, Tyrone Aboud and Norman Jewer from Chomedey Polyvalent, James Corsi, Stephen Wordsworth, Michael Cullen, Barry Murphy and Stephen Petenaude from Father McDonald, Peter Laszuk and John Bloondahl from Rosemount, and Jim Montgomery from Dorval.

The "B" squad will be composed of these players: Jeff Kenneway and Ken Stewart from St. Thomas, David Boyd, Pat Bienvenu, Dave Bossy, George Emblem, Mike Barrett and Kim Greco from Loyola, Garry Reid, Barry Kaye, Steve Heggison, Kevin Doherty and Grant Wilson from Howard S. Billings, and Peter Nickels, Chris Secord, Buddie Gerrie, Robin Dunphy and Hudson Gage all from Montreal West High.
